Course Description:
This is an advanced course that will take students on an intellectual tour of Europe from the late 18th to the late 20th century. This course is divided in three units. The first unit focuses on understanding the emergence of liberalism by studying the rationalism and ideas about freedom in the Enlightenment focusing on the thought of Voltaire, Immanuel Kant, and a few others. The topic of the second unit are the critics to liberal/rationalist thought in the 19th century (conservatism, Utopian socialism, Marxism, anti-rationalism, Freudian thought, etc.). The third part focuses on the crisis of liberalism in the years 1914–1945 where we will study illiberal and fascist thinkers such as Ernst Jünger, Adolf Hitler, Benito Mussolini, or Karl Schmidt. We will also discuss the challenge of Stalinism to liberalism. This unit will conclude with the revival of liberal thought after 1945 focusing on the thought of thinkers such as Raymond Aron and Jürgen Habermas, and then discuss the challenge from postmodern thought, focusing on the thought of Michel Foucault. This is an intellectual history course. This means that we will be looking at thought of several important thinkers/philosophers/artists, but we will also pay attention to the social impact of their ideas and their art. We are also going to delve into thinkers not usually considered to be academics or scholars but whose contributions had a crucial impact on European intellectual life. Grades will be broken down as follows: Participation/ In-class assignments: 25% Reflection Paper: 15% Quiz 1– Unit 1: 20% Quiz 2– Unit 2: 20% Quiz 3 – Unit 3: 20% (Final)
Course Objectives:
The course will help students do the following in each class session: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Improve critical reading skills and develop vocabulary. -Improve skills in asking as well as answering good questions. -Heighten mastery of communication (writing, listening, presenting).

- Increase overall proficiency in analysis and discussion.
- Enhance understanding of intellectual history.

Course Policies

Attendance: Discussion is necessary and many activities will be completed in class, therefore participation is vital to this course. If you do not come or if you are late, you cannot earn participation points for the day for class discussion. Do not schedule meetings or routine appointments during class. Everyone is expected to thoughtfully add to our dialogue both in the classroom and in our online discussions.

All absences require proper certification, a doctor's note and your own explanation per email, in English, for why you had to miss class. If you miss more than five class meetings for any reason, you may be required to drop the course.

Academic Honesty:

It is essential that you use your own ideas in this class and submit your own work in this class.

- Plagiarism is the presentation of someone else's work as your own, whether it be direct, undocumented quotation of words, phrases or sentences, or undocumented paraphrasing of original ideas, thoughts or content. Neglecting to acknowledge sources for outside material is a serious offense and will result in failure of the assignment and possibly the course.
- Properly citing other authors is important; do not copy ideas from other people or books and pass them off as your own. If you do, you will fail the assignment, and perhaps even the course.

Office Hours: You don't need an appointment for regularly scheduled office hours. In fact, you are encouraged to come and talk to me about the class, assignments, readings, and so on. If you have questions, concerns, or comments, this is a great time to discuss them. If you can't make it to office hours, you can email to make an appointment (please wait for a response). As with all emails, I will reply within one business day.

Questions: If questions or concerns related to this course arise, please feel free to discuss them with Dr. Jimenez during office hours, by appointment, or by email. Any questions or concerns regarding an assignment grade received must be discussed in person within ten business days after receiving the grade. Please do not wait until the end of the semester to raise concerns about grades.

Problems: If you have a problem or a health concern (concentration issues, need extra accommodations, etc.), come and speak with me at the start of the semester. If you have any other problems that impede your ability to complete assignments or attend class, please speak with me right away. If you have spoken to me and your problem persists, please contact Dean Passos:

apassos@sky.miyazaki-mic.ac.jp.

No harassment of any kind will be tolerated. Discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, national origins, age, sex, disability, sexual orientation, and gender identity is prohibited. Please be respectful of others. As some of our course material is controversial or sensitive and may contain adult content, respectful discussion is especially crucial. Dr. Jimenez reserves the right to ask anyone to leave at any time.

All assignments should be typed and submitted per the instructions on the assignment sheet. Back up your work and save often. Technology can cause trouble; don't let it hurt your grade. Dr. Jimenez will only accept emailed assignments with prior approval. Late work will be penalized. Work that is submitted late may not be accepted. Detailed assignment sheets outlining expectations for projects, responses, reflections, presentations, and so on will be given to you in class and will be available on our class website.

On assignments:

100-90: A grade

80-89: B grade

70-79: C grade

60-69: D grade

0-59: F grade

Methods of Feedback:

In principle, graded work will be returned within one week of submission with appropriate feedback i.e., grade, comments, rubric, etc.

Diploma Policy Objectives:

Work completed in this course helps students achieve the following Diploma Policy objective(s):

- 1: Advanced thinking skills (comparison, analysis, synthesis, and evaluation) based on critical thinking (critical and analytic thought)
